

Class X
English Practice Questions
Set 3

Answer each of the following questions in 40-50 words.

1. Appearance can be deceptive. Elucidate with reference to Custard's encounter with the pirate.

2. The Ball Poem is all about "epistemology of loss". Do you agree? Justify.

3. According to the poet Leslie Norris what should be the ideal life of a tiger?

4. Would you say that 'The Black Aeroplane' opens on a note of optimism? Give evidence from the text to justify your answer.

5. How do the family members of the seagull try to compel him to undertake his first flight?

6. How does the author describe his feelings for Mijbil through the phrases----- 'a thralldom to otters' and 'an otter fixation'?

7. 'Paper has more patience than people.'
How is the above observation by Anne related to her writing a diary?
